'NIPHETOS' HYBRID TEA WHITE

The Rose, Niphetos was used in the bouquet that was placed on the casket of the World War I soldier, who was thus designated as the Unknown Soldier before he departed France in 1921, on his last journey home to America. . This rose is available in the US from Angel Gardens, Roses Unlimited and Greenmantle Nursery.

'DUCHER' TEA/CHINA WHITE

The outstanding tea/China rose, Ducher was created in 1869 by Joseph Pernet-Ducher whose nursery is believed to be the source of the rose bouquet for the ceremony designating the Unknown Soldier in 1921. This rose is available in the US from Antique Rose Emporium.
