Centennial (TUS100) News Update

July 5, 2021 – TUS100 Update

Did you know? That the marble used to create the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier is the same as that in the Lincoln Memorial and the Sister Stones? Don't know what the Sister Stones are? Check out the

Centennial Tidbits: We have released another tidbit featuring LTC (Ret) Marilla Cushman from the Military Women's Memorial about their fantastic work capturing this history of and honoring women, past and present, who served our nation. She also talks about the partnership with the Society as we approach #TUS100 and ...spoiler alert... Sister Stones.... and you can listen by visiting: <https://youtu.be/6PP0IAy8Xz0>

Senator Tim Kaine, father of a US Marine, talked to us and answered the question of "Why is the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier important?". You can listen by visiting: https://youtu.be/\_uFrwRrcn2k

Michael Holub on behalf of The Old Guard Association (TOGA) talked in detail about the Regiment and "Why is the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier important?". You can listen by visiting: <https://youtu.be/ZFQmjn2X63Y>

We encourage anyone who wishes to send in a video answering the question of "Why is the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier important?" on a personal or national level to publicaffairs@tombguard.org so we can share your voice during the Centennial.
